In order to prevent impositions and embarrassments, the Tribune requests that persons leaving social notes and socially marriage notices or engagements, for publication, leave with them names through which the source of the same may be traced if the matter is called in question.

One of the prettiest affairs of the season was the violet tea given Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Maas, when Mrs. Maas and her friend, Mrs. Henry M. Crowther, entertained some two hundred of their friends most delightfully. The home was decorated throughout in violets, the lovely flowers filling vases everywhere, and the same violet tints in tulle making additional color. The hostesses were courteous and the guests were in the same colors. The table had many small crystal baskets of flowers, while the lace and all the table appointments were in the same colors. Mrs. Dean Daynes assisted the hostesses in receiving the guests and Mrs. Noble Warrum had charge of the dining room. Mrs. Frank Knox, Mrs. Wing B. Allen, Mrs. E. N. Campbell and Mrs. Russell Schuler poured tea and coffee. Assisting them were Mrs. Frank Lowe, Miss Genevieve Felt, Miss Ailine MacLean and Miss Frances Graham. Little Lucy Maas met the guests at the door.

Mrs. E. A. Wall entertained a party of about thirty friends yesterday at a beautifully appointed luncheon at the Commercial club and later at the matinee at the Salt Lake theater. The luncheon table was laid in the gold room, the favorite place so far for entertaining, and long rows of bright yellow chrysanthemums were used for decoration. The guests were members of the Utopia club and a few additional guests.

Miss Crawford and Miss Marion Rookledge entertained a few of the old friends of Mrs. Maylan C. Fox Wednesday afternoon at tea at Miss Crawford's home, to say goodbye before Mrs. Fox leaves for the coast. The home was bright with flowers and at the tea Mrs. P. S. Bascom and Mrs. George P. Holman poured, while Miss Hanauer and Miss Ida Hanauer assisted.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Armstrong entertained most delightfully Wednesday evening at a dinner at their home, when a dozen of their friends were guests. The occasion of the dinner was a great cluster of them filling the central part of the table in a crystal basket, made the table very attractive.

Gen. and Mrs. J. Milton Thompson are known to a number of friends here, having visited Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Walcott Thompson. The following item from the Army and Navy Journal will be read with interest by their friends here: "A delightful family gathering took place in the private dining room of the Pomona officers on Thanksgiving evening, when Brigadier General and Mrs. J. Milton Thompson, U. S. A., who are spending the winter at Pomona, Cal., entertained relatives and schoolmates of the vicinity, celebrating as closely as possible the old New England festival in spirit and manner. Covers were laid for seventeen. The central place was held by a caper bowl made from a yellow pumpkin, overflowing with various fruits. The place cards were engraved with the monogram of the houses in silver and gilt. On the back of each appeared a rhyme, which carried some joke to the initiated recipient. Souvenirs also were personally appropriate, or consisted of turkey and pumpkin candy boxes. 'Old times' was the general subject of conversation."

Salt Lake will be interested in the following item from the Army and Navy Journal of recent date: "Captain Frank T. Hines, U. S. A., at present a student officer attached to the advanced class at the artillery school, Fort Monroe, has returned from a week-end visit to New York City, where he spent most of his time with Major F. W. Ward, N. G. S. Y."

The "county fair" of the First Presbyterian church will open Friday evening with a real turkey dinner and later an evening of entertainment will be given by some of the talent of the church. Booths have been erected, and those in charge of them are Mrs. Samuel Paul, Mrs. Joe Taylor, Mrs. Hill and Mrs. John Reed, while Mrs. W. H. Alexander and Mrs. L. S. Deane will manage the event. The fair will run for two days and will be open all day Saturday.

Owing to death in the family, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Jennings have recalled their invitations for Thursday evening.

The Spirit of Liberty chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will meet this afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. H. Alexander, and Mrs. Henry R. Klingender will have charge of the program.

Miss Josephine Spencer entertained a party of friends at a luncheon at the Commercial club Wednesday, followed by a box party at the Garrick theater, the affair being in honor of Miss Norma Sears of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ross will be at home after today at No. 2, the Brantford.

Soon we'll be flying through the air like the birds. Nearer and nearer come the days of practical aviation and with them will come a new race of fighting men.

The new days will have food and drink problems, just as we do, for on proper sustenance depends the daily battle. The aerial fighting man will demand a beverage which will nourish and strengthen him and keep his nerves at highest strength.

Ghirardelli's GROUND CHOCOLATE

will be the favorite beverage then as it is now, for it is the best of all beverages; it contains the greatest percentage of nutriment that nature has concentrated into any food substance. Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate is absolutely pure; not only purity which conforms with the law, but the purity that comes from perfect materials and scientific processes.
